

ADDENDUM TO NEW ACCOUNT DOCUMENTATION
NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS REGARDING BANK MERGER AND FDIC INSURANCE COVERAGE

Effective June 8, 2020 (the "Closing Date"), South State Bank ("SSB") merged with and into CenterState Bank, National Association ("CenterState"), with CenterState being the surviving bank. Immediately following such merger, CenterState changed its name to South State Bank, National Association. Although now a combined bank, SSB and CenterState branches will continue to operate under their respective former names until their operating systems convert to the combined bank systems in the second quarter of 2021 (the "Conversion Date").

You are receiving this Notice because you have opened a new loan or deposit account with CenterState during the period between and including the Closing Date and Conversion Date (the "Conversion Period"). During the Conversion Period, any documentation you execute with or for the benefit of South State Bank, National Association, may include the name "CenterState Bank", "CenterState" or a similar reference. CenterState Bank, National Association is the same banking entity as South State Bank, National Association, and any and all references to "CenterState Bank", or "CenterState" shall mean South State Bank, National Association.

In addition, SSB and CenterState are the same FDIC-insured institution. To the extent your deposits are federally insured, any deposits you held separately at SSB and CenterState prior to the Closing Date will continue to be insured separately for a period of six months. After the six-month transition period, your deposits at the former SSB and the former CenterState will be added together for the purpose of determining the amount of your FDIC coverage at South State Bank, National Association. Any deposit made to an account you open on or after the Closing Date at SSB or CenterState is a deposit at South State Bank, National Association for FDIC insurance purposes. Your total deposits at South State Bank, National Association that are in the same ownership rights and capacity will be insured up to $250,000.00.

Certificates of Deposit (CDs) are insured separately for six months beginning on the Closing Date or until maturity, whichever is later. In addition, if you have a CD that is renewed for the same term and amount during this six-month transition period, the CD will continue to be insured separately until the next renewal date.

If you have more than $250,000.00 in total deposits at the combined banks, you may call SSB at (800) 277-2175 or CenterState at (855) 863-2265 for more information about how your funds may be insured at South State Bank, National Association.
